

Hugh Philpott

Mr Philpott joined the FCO in 1980 where he has worked on a broad range of issues including International Security, Overseas Territories and the Middle East. He has previously served in Oslo, Budapest, Baghdad, Washington and Muscat. He has also worked at the Department for International Development providing technical assistance to Russia and also for the Department of Business Innovation and Skills where he led the UK Science and Innovation Network.

CURRICULUM VITAE

Full name Hugh Stanley Philpott
Married to Janine Frederica Philpott
Children One daughter
2014 –
present Kyiv and Astana Temporary Assignments
2012 – 2013 Language training (Russian)
2008 – 2012 FCO and BIS, Head of Science & Innovation Network and Deputy Head of International Science & Innovation Unit
2007 – 2008 FCO, Deputy Head of Science & Innovation Group
2005 – 2007 FCO, Deputy Head of Overseas Territories Department
2001 – 2004 Muscat, Deputy Head of Mission
1999 – 2001 FCO, Head of Bermuda and Caribbean Section, Overseas Territories Directorate
1997 – 1999 DfID, Programme Manager, Russia, East Europe and Central Asia Department
1993 – 1997 Washington DC, Second Secretary Political 1991 – 1993 FCO, Desk Officer, Bermuda, Turks & Caicos Islands, Anguilla an Cayman
Islands
1990 – 1991 FCO, Assistant Desk Officer for Israel and Lebanon
1988 – 1990 Iraq, Third Secretary
1987 – 1988 Language training (Arabic)
1985 – 1987 Budapest, Vice-Consul
1984 – 1985 Language Training (Hungarian)
1982 – 1984 Oslo, Pro-consul
1980 – 1982 FCO, Assistant Desk Officer Security Dept
1980 Joined FCO